Desk Talk

Dry Cargo

Activity on the dry sector continues with mostly on-going negotiations taking place this week across all sizes. We don't see any signs of price easing any time soon, more likely the opposite, as long as the supply of available sales candidates remains limited especially for eco-type vessels and quality non-eco vessels.

On the Cape sector, the "CAPE AQUA" (178K DWT, 2009, SWS) has achieved a price of USD 25.5 mill from Chinese buyers, and on Mini Capes, we are awaiting to see final levels achieved on the scrubber fitted "BABY HERCULES" (ABT 110K DWT, 2011, MITSUI, SCRUBBER) which invited offers on Tuesday. In the Kamsarmax segment, we understand a 2011 Japanese built unit is rumored to have been sold in the region of USD 17 mill.

On the Ultramax front the "BEAUTY JASMINE" (ABT 63K DWT, 2015, CIC JIANGSU, Eco M/E) which invited offers on Monday basis a delivery between 1 Jan-31 April 2026, we hear that Sellers have seen price levels between USD 22-22.5 mill, although we await to see final price achieved.

Lastly on Handies, we await to see the outcome of negotiations on the "OCEAN TACT" (ABT 36K DWT, 2019, SHIKOKU, SCRUBBER) which invited offers on Tuesday whereby owners were hoping to achieve levels close to USD 23 mill, whilst the "LA BAMBA" (ABT 37K DWT, 2012, SAIKI) which also invited offers on Tuesday is committed achieving price levels over USD 15 mill.

Tanker

During this interesting week we had very few sales materializing. All eyes being on the VLCC market, where c/o Sinokor have sold their "SINGAPORE LOYALTY" (ABT 307K DWT, 2007 DALIAN, SCRUBBER) for USD 47 mill.

There are also unconfirmed rumors of a couple of eco type 2016 Korean built MR tankers with 1-year charters attached having achieved USD 33 mil each.
